Happy Holidays And So Long, 2020

Happy Holidays &
Best Wishes For 2021

It's Been...A Year — We know that how we celebrate the holiday season and the year's end may be different for many of us, but one thing remains true for our company. December is when we look back on the business of the past year in preparation for the upcoming year.

We are SO grateful for everything that you - our loyal customers and friends - have done to help support our small business in trying times. We count ourselves lucky to have your support, and we look forward to continuing into 2021 and beyond - together.

Have Yourself A Merry Little Christmas, With A Twist

This year, try getting into the spirit of the season with some of these unique holiday ideas. Take a step outside the box and put your own spin on your holiday plans.

- Socially Distanced Secret Santa - Whether it is a group of friends that you haven't been able to spend as much time with or your colleagues at your place of work, "Secret Santa" is always a fun time. In our "socially distanced" version, you can get friends or family that have moved away into the action, too! With online stores and free shipping from many major retailers, you can do all of your shopping and sending on the internet this year.
- Mail Dessert To Your Loved Ones - With the right packing technique, you can do some extra holiday baking and MAIL cookies (or even some more durable pies) to those family members that may not be able to come visit this year.
- Tour The Holiday Lights - If you're not close enough to visit any of the growingly popular drive-through holiday lights displays, you can still enjoy a cruise through town with the family to enjoy a bit of holiday spirit. And on the plus side, you can roll your windows up and drive away if roaming Christmas carolers aren't your favorite.
- Travel Around The World With Your Holiday Dishes - Celebrate your festive meal with an extra dish or two that are popular holiday eats in other places around the world. You can add some seafood to infuse a bit of Italian "Feast Of The Seven Fishes" to your table. Perhaps a mince pie from England, a babka from Poland, or Swedish saffron buns would make a fine addition to your dinner table. Or, if you don't like the idea of cooking, you can order out some KFC and claim that you're doing a Japanese inspired holiday dinner (Seriously! Look it up!)
